

4 Districts Adopt Ed-Fi via Data Connect

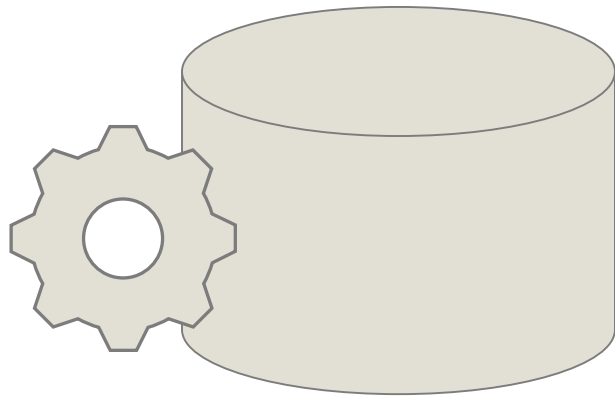

Why districts are choosing a managed Ed-Fi® solution

Bryan Bleil

Certica Solutions

Ed-Fi Ambassador

To implement and support Ed-Fi,
you have 3 choices:

Ed-Fi ODS & API

- Do-It-Yourself
- Outsource implementation & support with a custom services engagement
- Choose a managed solution

What do we mean by a managed solution?

DATA CONN

- Hosted in
- Full
- Ma
- Ongoing Sup
- Ed-Fi Upgrades

Ed-Fi ODS & API

Vendor

Integration Console

Vendor

Vendor

Data Vault

Meet the Districts

Tim Cariss, Chico Unified School District, California

Don Wolff, Hillsboro School District, Oregon

Darren Skott, Uncommon Charter Schools, New York

Greg Pitzer, San Ramon Valley Unified School District, California

Chico Unified School District

- Tim Cariss

Director, Assessment & Accountability

- Chico, CA
- 14,000 students
- 1st data source = Aeries
- 2nd data source = Illuminate

Hillsboro School District

- Don Wolff

Chief Information Officer

- Hillsboro, OR
- 20,500 students
- 1st data source = Synergy (Edupoint)
- 2nd data source = Infinite Visions (Tyler)

Uncommon Schools

- Darren Skott

Director, IT, Data Management

- NY, NJ, MA
- 19,000 students
- 1st data source = PowerSchool
- 2nd data source = Illuminate

San Ramon Valley Unified School District

- Greg Pitzer

Director of Technology

- Danville, CA
- 32,500 students
- 1st data source = Infinite Campus
- 2nd data source = Illuminate